PREFACE

Early love for history and interest in the tales told by my parents of their distant relatives, led me to adopt the hobby of collecting this data and recording it. Later, I decided this material, so collected, should be verified, amplified, and preserved for future generations. This I set about doing in my leisure hours. I consulted old letters, written to my father, grandfather, and great grandfather by relatives in the early days. I advertised through leading papers in the country for the families with whom we had lost contact. I wrote hundreds of letters asking for family records. I also wrote to county clerks, historical societies, libraries, churches and cemetery associations. Whenever possible, I consulted vital records for verification of names and dates.

I wish here to thank the many who so kindly aided me in accomplishing my purpose and so patiently bore with me in my repeated inquiries for help. Very few disregarded entirely my pleas for information. Many gave unstintingly of their time and energy in collecting data and forwarding same to me.

Much credit is due my nephew, Marquis E. Shattuck, No. 547, for his aid in editing these notes, also to my nieces for their aid in typing.

Many of this line dropped the final e from their name when they migrated to New York, which accounts for the change in spelling.

Some valuable data, received too late for inclusion in the body of the book, will be found in the Addenda.

To make it easy to trace a family, I have inserted the number after the name of the parent in each case.

THE GREENE FAMILY

From my own experience I am sure that many of the descendants of the Greenes of early colonial times are quite uninformed of the important part which their ancestors played in the early history of this country. It is not the province of this book to discuss that early history but rather to refer such of you as wish to know more of these ancestors to the very excellent book of Mrs. Lora S. LaMance of Joplin, Missouri, The Green Family and Its Branches, which gives not only the history of the three John Greenes who came to Rhode Island, but also their English origin and family traditions together with their relationship to the French kings of the Capetian line.

From much study of historical and genealogical material and correspondence with local historians of Rhode Island, I learned that our immigrant ancestor was John Greene of Quidnessett, who came from England in the ship Mathew, which sailed in 1635. He, however, did not reach his final home in Aquidnessett, Rhode Island, until 1637, having stopped in the West Indies and Massachusetts. Aquidnessett was later shortened to Quidnessett.

If any of our Greene Family wishes to trace back to the first Greene of England, Lord Alexander de Greene de Boketon, he could follow back through the history of Robert[14], father of John of Quidnessett[15]; then Henry[13]; John[12]; Robert of Gillingham[11]; John the Fugitive[10]; his father[9]; Thomas[8]; Sir Henry[7], who was beheaded by Henry Bolingbroke, cousin to King Richard II, when he seized the throne; Lord Chief Justice Sir Henry[6]; Sir Thomas[5], who married Lady Lucie de La Zouch and added the blood of the royal Capetian line to her descendants; Sir Thomas[4]; his father[3] and grandfather[2]; (names lost), and finally Sir Alexander.

In this Capetian line were several historical characters, among them being Robert the Strong, twenty five generations removed from John of Quidnessett; Hugo Capet, the King, twenty two generations remote; and Hugo de Vermandois, the great Crusader, nineteen generations away.

Our American line is as follows:

John of Quidnessett[1], who married Mrs. Joan Beggarly; his second son, Lieutenant John[2], who married Abigail Wardwell; his second son, Wealthy John[3], who married Ann Nancy Hill; Timothy[4], his sixth child, who married Mrs. Silence (Rowland) Burlingame; Levi[5], his fourth child who married Asenath Robinson.

The purpose of this book is to give the record of the descendants of Timothy Greene[4] through his son Levi[5].

Chapter I

TIMOTHY GREENE

Father of Levi Greene

TIMOTHY GREENE[4] (Wealthy John[3] Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]).

Little is known of the early life of Elder Timothy Greene. He was born in West Greenwich, Rhode Island, June 14, 1725. He probably spent his early days on his father's large farm in West Greenwich. September 1, 1763, he was ordained as pastor of the famous Maple Root Six Principle Baptist Church, being the first pastor and continuing his work until 1770. This Church of Coventry is situated about two miles west of the village of Washington and about one and one third miles from the old Field Cemetery at the foot of Harkney Hill on the old farm of Lieutenant John Greene[2], where several generations of Greenes lie sleeping. His fame as a pastor continues to this day. He was married by Rev. James Colvin to Mrs. Silence (Rowland) Burlingame of Scituate, Massachusetts, in West Greenwich, Rhode Island, on September 22, 1751. He resided mostly in Coventry. In 1770 he moved to the westward, probably to Lanesboro, Berkshire Co., Massachusetts, where we find record of his living in 1775. He died about 1780. In a letter written by Jonathan and Molly (Greene) Joice September 3, 1813, from Middleburg, New York, to Levi and Asenath (Robinson) Greene at Scipio, New York, they say: "Old Mother Greene was alive last Spring and lived with Pealeg. She is almost helpless." This is Timothy's wife and is the nearest knowledge we have to the time of her death.

*Silence (Rowland) Burlingame-Greene was said to have been of noble birth and to have had much property of which she was deprived. She was said to have owned at one time nearly all of Marblehead, Massachusetts.

*See "American Ancestry," Vol. 5—Page 91.

The children of Timothy Greene[4] and Mrs. Silence (Rowland) Burlingame-Greene were:

1. Peleg[5], born in April 1752. Married Freelove Crawford in 1779. Their children as recorded are Russell, Allen, Ellen, Warren, Sarah, Peleg and Benjamin Franklin.

2. Enfield[5], born May 15, 1754. Married Mr. Stephen Baker.

3. Huldah[5], born December 21, 1757. Married Caleb Wood of Coventry in 1789.

4. Levi[5], born June 6, 1759. Married Asenath Robinson.

5. Mary[5], called Molly, born May 5, 1760. Married Jonathan Joice and afterwards Obed Harvey. Her children, Rev. Stephen Joice of Schoharie, New York, and others, were, in October, 1843, seeking to obtain the pension due their mother at the time of her death, through the pension agency of William B. Pierce, Albany, New York. The children said at that time that "Jonathan and Mary (Greene) Joice were married in the Spring of the year 1775 or 1776 and that thereafter he entered the service as lieutenant. That he served during the expedition to Canada in the winter following, that he was afterward employed with the army which operated against General Burgoyne, was at the Battle of Bennington and many other places." (Old letter)

Jonathan and Molly Joice lived in September, 1813, in Middleburg, New York, as proven by the following letter which was written to Molly Joice's brother, Levi Greene, under that date. The Eunice and her husband of whom they speak are Levi Greene's daughter and her husband, David Crippen. The Mr. Chapel is probably Joseph who married Aurelia Greene, Levi's daughter. The Stephen Baker was the husband of Timothy's daughter, Enfield.

Jonathan Joice lived in Lanesborough, Massachusetts. In 1775 he belonged to the Regiment of Green Mountain Boys. Jonathan Joice was married to Mary Greene by her father, Elder Timothy Greene. Jonathan was at the battle of Bennington. He was a lieutenant.

6. Silence Greene[5], born April 14, 1762. Married—— Martin.

7. Rowland Greene[5], born April 12, 1766. Married Elizabeth Champlain.

8. Elizabeth (Betsey) Greene, born May 9, 1768. Married —— Fisk. A. T. Briggs of Boston, Massachusetts says that the inscription on her head stone in Carpenter's Burial Ground in either East Greenwich or Warwick, Rhode Island, is: "Elizabeth Greene, second wife of Peleg Wightman, died April 1, 1808 in the fortieth year of her age."

Chapter II

LEVI GREENE

Revolutionary Patriot

1.—LEVI GREENE[5] (Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1])

Levi Greene, the fourth child of Timothy and Mrs. Silence (Rowland) Burlingame-Greene, was born June 6, 1759 in Coventry, Kent Co., Rhode Island. We know nothing more of his life until July, 1776, when we find him living in Lanesboro, Massachusetts, in Berkshire Co. From the Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C., under date of September 5, 1891, we have the following in regard to Levi Greene's war record:

"In July, 1776, he volunteered for nine months as "Ranger" under Capt. Baldwin in Albany County, New York, in "Catching Tories and guarding property" until December, 1776, when he was ordered to Fort Constitution, near West Point; then in January, 1777, down the Hudson River to Peekskill, after which he returned to Albany County and soon discharged."

"In July and August, 1777, he served one month with Cap. Newell, marched to Manchester, Bennington County, Vt., from whence he was called home and hired a substitute, but on the alarm caused by the advance of Gen'l Burgoyne, the militia were ordered out and he volunteered under Capt. Daniel Brown, joined Col. Symonds regiment, and was under Gen'l John Stark in his celebrated battle of Bennington, Vt. (Aug. 16, 1777) being one with others who assaulted and captured a breastwork; the prisoners were confined in a meeting house from which they attempted to escape, and he was in the struggle to prevent it when four prisoners were killed. He was one of the guards to conduct them as far as Lanesboro, his home." Silas Greene of Otsego, New York, was a witness, having served with him in 1776.

One tells the story of Levi Greene being sent by Gen. Nathaniel Greene, who was a relative, to Gen. Robinson, as a messenger and there becoming acquainted with Asenath Robinson and marrying her. Another, that at the close of the war he was appointed Revenue Collector which office took him to Connecticut where he became acquainted with Asenath Robinson, daughter of Reuben Robinson, whom he married. I have not been able to confirm the truth of these reports as to their early acquaintance.

Asenath Robinson was a daughter of Reuben Robinson, a direct descendant of Rev. John Robinson, pastor to the Pilgrims. Reuben Robinson, who was born at Windham, Connecticut, January 17, 1725, married Esther Palmer at Scotland, Connecticut, January 12, 1748. During the Revolutionary War, Reuben Robinson served as a private in Capt. Buckley's Company, Col. S. B. Webb's Regiment, having enlisted in the 3rd Connecticut Regiment March 5, 1781.

After the marriage of Levi Greene and Asenath Robinson they lived successively in Cheshire, Massachusetts, Rensselaerville, Albany County, New York, and Middleburg, Schoharie County, New York. In 1811 they moved to Venice and later to Scipio in Cayuga County. About 1816 they moved to Livonia, in Livingston County, New York. Their last years were spent in West Bloomfield, Oakland Co., Michigan.

There is still in the hands of the descendants, a deed for one hundred acres of land sold by Wardwell Green of Middleburg, New York to Levi Green. It is dated December 16, 1797 and the price was 200 pounds. The following is the description of the tract:

"All that lot or parcel of ground situate in the old Huntersland Patent lying in Middleburgh and takes its beginning at a stake and heap of stones thence south twenty degrees, west twenty chains to a hemlock tree, thence south seventy degrees, east thirty chains to hemlock tree, thence North twenty, east to a stake and stones, then north twenty degrees, east nineteen chains and twenty links to a beach tree marked L. G. thence sixty-one degrees, west sixteen chains eighty links to a popular tree, thence south twenty-nine degrees, west twenty-three chains to a stake and stones, from thence north seventy degrees, west to the place of beginning, containing one hundred acres more or less."

For about sixteen years previous to September 28, 1832, at which time he applied for his pension, Levi Greene lived at Livonia, Livingston Co., New York. From this time until 1838, he lived with his children in Livonia and in Cayuga Co., New York. In 1838, Levi and his wife came to West Bloomfield, Michigan, having disposed of their holdings in New York. Here they lived with their son, Zepheniah Ripley, until their death. About the first of 1840 Levi Greene received his pension and in the spring, or early summer, he and his wife visited their children in New York, returning that same year. Asenath (Robinson) Greene, who was born in Connecticut June 26, 1765, died in West Bloomfield, Michigan, May 12, 1847. Levi Greene followed her June 24, 1851. Both are buried in the North Farmington Burial Ground, their lot being endowed by their offspring. On June 14, 1906, the General Richardson Chapter of the D. A. R. of Pontiac, Oakland Co., Michigan, placed the official marker of the S. A. R. over the grave of Levi Greene.

A sword which belonged to Levi Greene is in the possession of the Willard Green family, having descended through Levi's son Horace.

His powder horn is in the hands of Arthur R. Green of Walled Lake, Michigan, who is a great grandson, having been handed down through the son, Zepheniah Ripley. It has the following inscription:

"Levi Greene—His Horn

Who enlisted in the Continental Service Range in the country of Albany in the year of 1776 Under Leftenent Jackson during the Congiac." (Congress?)

The children of Levi[5] and Asenath (Robinson) Greene were:

2. (1) Aurelia Greene[6], born November 5, 1785.
3. (2) Eunice Greene[6], born June 19, 1788.
4. (3) Waterman Greene[6],
5. (4) Sophia Greene[6], born in 1792.

6. (5) Fanny Greene[6], born April 30, 1794.
7. (6) Horace Greene[6], born August 7, 1798.
8. (7) Huldah Greene[6], born September 24, 1799.
9. (8) Zepheniah Ripley Greene[6], born August 6, 1801.
10. (9) Emma Greene[6], born April 24, 1804.
11. (10) Speedy Greene[6], born May 25, 1808.
12. (11) Laura Greene[6], born August 11, 1811.

Chapter III

LEVI GREENE
His Children

2.—AURELIA GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John [2], John of Quidnessett[1])

Aurelia Greene was born in Cheshire, Massachusetts, November 5, 1785. Very little can I learn of her early life. She was first married to Joseph Chapel in Massachusetts and in January, 1821, they lived at Lenox, Massachusetts, with Mr. Chapel's father, mother, and sister, Lucretia. In a letter to Levi Greene at this time, Mr. Chapel expresses a wish to go west to New York, but says there is one advantage in Lenox which he would not have in Oswego Co., New York, that is the education of his children which then numbered seven. He speaks of the hard times and high taxes. Says there is an abundance of produce but no market. In December of the same year Joseph and Aurelia Chapel write again to their parents. Mr. Chapel's brother-in-law, Mr. Johnson, and family have moved in with the Father Chapel and Joseph's family lives by itself.

November 30, 1823, Joseph Chapel and wife write from Volney, Oswego Co., New York, saying they have just arrived in New York after a tedious journey of thirteen days, arriving November 13th. "Land can be had for three dollars per acre, cash down," says he, "but the winters are too long and too severe." He thinks he would like to go on to Livonia, New York to settle. Aurelia tells of leaving her daughter, Aurelia, behind, also leaving her daughter, Almira, with Mr. Miller's family in Manlius, Massachusetts, to attend school during the winter. In April, 1825, however, Joseph Chapel and family are still living in Volney, New York, although evidently they have visited their parents since the last letter of 1823. In this letter they state that there has not been a day's sleighing in all winter and some people are ploughing before the twentieth of March. Joseph Chapel, who was born August 13, 1778, died at Palermo, New York, August, 1833. By trade he was a shoemaker.

About 1837 Aurelia (Greene) Chapel married Selim Dayton, a cabinet maker. He died in September, 1856. She died at Abijah Chapel's in Hastings, New York, about 1866 and is buried at Palermo, New York. Aurelia (Greene) and Joseph Chapel were the parents of eleven children, eight of whom were born in Lenox, Massachusetts, as follows:

13. (1) Elizabeth Chapel[7], born March 24, 1805.
14. (2) Aurelia Chapel[7], born May 15, 1807.
15. (3) Almira Chapel[7], born February 24, 1809.
16. (4) Ebenezer W. Chapel[7], born March 12, 1811.
17. (5) Maria Thankful Chapel[7], born November 10, 1813.
18. (6) Levi R. Chapel[7], born September 27, 1816.
19. (7) Lucretia Ann Chapel[7], born March 11, 1819.
20. (8) Jane Emma Chapel[7], born September 2, 1821.
21. (9) Ruth H. Chapel[7], born January 26, 1824.
22. (10) Abijah G. Chapel[7], born August 10, 1826.
23. (11) Orange Levi Chapel[7], born October 22, 1828.

3.—EUNICE GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born June 19, 1788 in Rensselaerville, New York. She married David Crippen, son of Ichabod Crippen, who was born January 18, 1787 and died August 14, 1870. Eunice (Greene) Crippen died September 23, 1863. Both are buried in East Worcester Cemetery, New York. They were members of the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Nettie E. (Wright) Snyder says, "My great Grandfather Crippen never missed but one Covenant Meeting, (a church meeting held one Saturday afternoon in each month). That was in haying time. Grandmother said he never ceased regretting his absence from this one. He built stone walls, some of which are still standing. He said he built them two feet high and two feet wide, so that if they fell over they would still be as high as when standing."

Two letters written by David Crippen from Decatur,

Otsego Co., New York, to Levi Greene and Ripley, are still in my possession. The first was written February 23, 1832. In this letter he speaks of the death of David Curtis, also tells of obtaining an affidavit from Mr. Greene and sending it to Cooperstown to get the County Clerk's certificate, at Levi Greene's request. This may have been the Silas Greene of Otsego, New York who was a witness to Levi Greene's Revolutionary service, having served with him in 1776. In a second letter written by David Crippen March 7, 1848, he speaks of the mercies of God in prolonging the lives of himself and his companion to an advanced age. In this letter he says, "We have nine children: two boys and seven girls. The two youngest, Levi and Sophia, remain single. All the rest are or have been married. They were all at home a few days ago. We have seventeen grandchildren. Asenath's Husband is dead." He writes, "I have one-hundred five acres of land, eighty five in high state of cultivation. David, my son, lives on the farm and works with me on shares. The production of the farm for the three last preceding years is rather over $350 in each year, making in the three said years $1100. The farm is worth $3000. I am out of debt. My personal property is about as usual."

The children of Eunice Greene and David Crippen, all born in Decatur, New York, were:

24. (1) Levinia Crippen[7], born February 15, 1808.
    (2) Lisander Crippen[7], born July 28, 1809 — Died July 28, 1809.
25. (3) Mary Ann Crippen[7], born March 18, 1812.
26. (4) Asenath Crippen[7], born February 19, 1814.
27. (5) Eliza Crippen[7], born July 14, 1815.
28. (6) David Crippen[7], born April 25, 1817.
29. (7) Harriet Crippen[7], born March 14, 1820.
30. (8) Almira Crippen[7], born July 20, 1822.
31. (9) Levi Crippen[7], born December 2, 1824.
    (10) Hiram Crippen[7], died young.
32. (11) Sophia Crippen[7], born October 1, 1829.

4.—WATERMAN GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) He was killed by a tree falling on him when he was eighteen years old.

To Levi and Asenath Greene-Acrostick.

Written by Laura Greene to her parents on the death of their oldest son, Waterman Greene, who was killed by a tree falling on him when eighteen years old.

Wake ev'ry heart to sympathy and mourn,
Alas! The blooming youth will ne'er return,
To all the piteous tale of woe impart,
Extreme dejection overwhelms my heart,
Revolving seasons roll the tide of grief
Mark the dire stroke on some unfading leaf
And may the fair creation in its round
Ne'er witness or inflict so deep a wound!

5.—SOPHIA GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Rensselaerville, New York in 1792. She died November 24, 1848, aged 56 years. She married David Curtis. He died January 30, 1832, aged 30 years. She was left a widow with four children. They lived at Genoa Hollow, Cayuga Co., New York. In a letter written February 16, 1849 by Levi Curtis to Emmet Green, he tells of his mother's death, of her intense suffering, and great endurance, he speaks of Elder Purrington as the preacher of her funeral sermon. Text, James 5:11.

The four children of David and Sophia (Greene) Curtis were:

33. (1) Levi Curtis[7], born 1819.
34. (2) Edwin Curtis[7], born October 24, 1821.
35. (3) Henry E. Curtis[7], born 1825 at Genoa, New York.
36. (4) Alexina Curtis[7], born August 11, 1828.

6.—FANNY GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Rensselaerville, Albany Co., New York, April 30, 1794. On July 7, 1812, she was married to Orange Chapin, son of Elijah Chapin, who was born December 15, 1788. Their married life seems to have been spent in Aurelius, New York, from whence letters to Levi Greene were written by his daughter, Fanny, in 1821 and 1838, these being among a collection of Levi Greene's letters, still preserved. One sister of Fanny's writes in 1838, "Orange and Fanny live in a very pleasant place and are very handsomely situated." Orange Chapin was Deacon of a Presbyterian Church two miles from his home on the Genesee Turnpike. He was of the fifth generation from Deacon Samuel Chapin of Chicopee, Massachusetts, who took the "Freeman's oath" at Boston, Massachusetts, in 1642. Samuel Chapin was from Paignton, Devon, England. Orange Chapin's father was a Revolutionary soldier and was present at the surrender of General Burgoyne. Mr. Chapin, himself, was a soldier in the last war with Great Britain. Both Fanny (Greene) and Orange Chapin died in Auburn, New York, and are buried in the family lot on Fort Hill. She died October 12, 1876. He died November 9, 1867.

The children of Fanny (Greene) and Orange Chapin follow:

(1) Mary Ann Chapin[7], born September 3, 1813 — died May 7, 1814.

37. (2) Amanda Chapin[7], born December 7, 1814.

38. (3) Nelson Chapin[7], born December 15, 1816.

39. (4) Levinea Sophia Chapin[7], born June 17, 1818.

40. (5) Matilda Chapin[7], born March 20, 1820.

41. (6) Aurelia Chapin[7], born September 13, 1822.

42. (7) Emma Jane Chapin[7], September 17, 1824.

43. (8) Willard Slocum Chapin[7], born December 26, 1826.

44. (9) Elijah Emmons Chapin[7], born July 14, 1829.

45. (10) Asenath Robinson Chapin[7], born October 9, 1831.

46. (11) Mary Caroline Chapin[7], born May 1, 1837.

7.—HORACE GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Rensselaerville, Albany Co., New York, on August 7, 1798. He lived at his father's home during his young manhood and, with his family, occupied half of the house on his father's farm in Livonia, New York. His marriage to Diantha Powell occurred September 1, 1820, in Livonia, Rev. J. Bramen officiating. Among the old papers of Elmina C. Green, was one which was signed by Enos Throop, Governor, and John A. Dix, Adjutant General, appointing Horace Green Ensign of the 1st Regiment of Riflemen. It was dated January 21, 1831, at Livingston Co., New York. In 1832, Horace Greene and family came to Michigan and settled on a farm in Springfield, Oakland County. Here he was killed by a falling tree January 20, 1833. A letter which he wrote July 24, 1832, to his parents in Livonia, New York, follows:

"Dear Friends:

"I now take pen in hand to write a few lines to let you know our situation. We arrived here the twenty-second of May and found everything wanting. In the first place I had to go to Detroit and take my land. I there bought me a yoke of oxen and cow which prove very good. I have got me a house eighteen by twenty feet and got a good shingled roof on the same. We moved onto our place the twelfth of July. I have got about an acre plowed and planted to potatoes and other sauce. I am now cutting hay to keep my cattle which we find in abundance. We think it a very pleasant country. The land lies rolling with a sandy soil of a chocolate color. As to the family they all enjoy good health at present. I have had a very sore mouth but it is now getting better.

"Ripley's folks came here and staid about a fortnight. He has bought him a place in the town of Bloomfield or Farmington. There is good land clost by here for sale. The place is a settling very fast. In the course of one year there have twelve families moved in which constitutes the neighborhood I live in. Father if you and Mother should come here you would like the country. If you should think of coming you could keep the mare and wagon. I want father should see that what there is coming to me is collected and if Gifford comes out this fall send it by him and if not send it by Ripley. It is twenty-four miles to where Ripley lives. Tell Sheldon he can get good wages to work at his trade or on a farm. I have got two pigs. The man gave me one and I paid fifty cents for the other. O, my friends, as there is now no other way to communic only by writting let us improve these. I could think of a great deal to say that I can't write. Give my respects to Sophia, Gerothman, Speedy, Sheldon, and Laury. Tell them not to forget they have such a brother. Tell them all to write. Give my respects to all my inquiring friends. May the blessings of God attend you all. So I subscribe myself you son and brother.

Levi and Aseneth Green Horace Greene."

On the letter above is one written by the wife which follows:

Springfield, Oakland County
July the 24, 1832

"Beloved friends:

I am blest with unusual health at preasant, and feel very well contented with our situation I have nothing of great importance to write Horace has wrote all that is necissary to write except I left A pillow some where and I want you send it to me the first oppertunity if you can find it O Speedy I often think of the hours that are gone when you and Emma and I have walked in the fields and forests together and now where are we seperated one in place one in another but no more my thoughts grow wanderin I hardly know what I am writing. give me love to all brothers and Sisters and all inquiring friends don't fail to write as soon and as aften as possible it growing dark and Duty cals me to my business so I subscribe myself yours

Diantha Green"

Diantha (Powell) Green, who was born in Vermont August 28, 1798, was married a second time to Wilder Winslow March 24, 1838. She died at Springfield, Michigan, January 31, 1856. Both Horace and Diantha (Powell) Green are buried on a lot with their son, Elisha P. Green, in Springfield, Michigan. The cemetery is situated one and one half miles from the northern boundary line of the township of Springfield, and three fourths of a mile from the eastern boundary.

The children of Horace and Diantha (Powell) Green are:

47. (1) Waterman Green[7], born April 28, 1822.
48. (2) Gerothman Green[7], born August 10, 1824.
(3) Elisha P. Green[7], born August 7, 1827 in Livonia, New York died December 30, 1847, buried in Springfield, Michigan.
49. (4) Elmina Cloe Green[7], born March 18, 1829.
50. (5) Diantha Malvina Green[7], born January 11, 1831.

8.—HULDAH GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Middleburg, New York, September 24, 1799. June 20, 1821, she married Godfrey Wilcox Slocum, son of Christopher Slocum and Phebe Wilcox. Godfrey was born on the coast near New Bedford at Kudhunk Street in Westport Township, Bristol County, Mass., June 18, 1800. He died at King's Ferry, New York, October 10, 1878, and is buried there. He was a farmer.

Mrs. Huldah (Greene) Slocum died at Ithaca, New York, March 21, 1897, and is also buried at King's Ferry. Their married life was spent in Genoa and Venice, New York. Their children were:

51. (1) Phebe Jane Slocum[7], born January 29, 1824.
52. (2) Caroline Slocum[7], born March 15, 1828.
(3) George Avery Slocum[7], born May 27, 1835, died March 8, 1839.
53. (4) Benjamin Franklin Slocum[7], born April 12, 1841.

9.—ZEPHENIAH RIPLEY GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Qiudnessett[1]) was born in Middleburg, Schoharie Co., New York, August 6, 1801. Some time before he was ten years old Ripley's parents moved to Scipio, Cayuga Co., New York. About 1816, he moved with his parents to Livonia, Livingston Co., New York, where he lived until 1832 when he came to Michigan. On December 3, 1826, he was united in marriage to Zerilla Gould of Newport, New Hampshire. She was a teacher in Livonia, having come there with her brother, Carlos, an itinerant Methodist minister, and making her home with the Widow Chamberlain on Vermont St. Z. R. continued living in the home which was shared by his parents, his two sisters, Speedy and Laura, (until their marriage) and his brother Horace and family, until his removal to Michigan. All worked the farm together and Z. R. worked also at carpenter work with Gerothman McDonald. In 1832, having sold out the farm, Zepheniah Ripley, with Horace and family, came to Michigan to look for a home. They went to Springfield, Michigan, where Horace took up land and settled. Ripley returned to New York for his goods and family and finally settled in West Bloomfield, Michigan, where he procured a farm of one hundred sixty acres, it being the S. E. ¼ of Sec. 31, half of which was purchased from John Coe, while the adjoining eighty acres was purchased from the government. The family arrived on this place July 11, 1832. Here he spent the remainder of his life, living until February 1, 1879. From a farm only one half acre of which was cleared when he came, his became one of the best farms in the community. He was a quiet man, a Republican in politics and a Universalist in faith.

Zerilla Gould, his wife, was born in one of the old New Hampshire farm homes in Newport, December 14, 1803. Her parents were Nathan and Betsy (Goodwin) Gould, daughter of Richard Goodwin of Revolutionary fame. Both her grandfather Gideon Gould and her grandfather Goodwin were Revolutionary soldiers. She died in the home in West Bloomfield, February 1, 1895. Both she and Mr. Green are buried in the North Farmington Burial Ground. She was a brave and self reliant pioneer, adding to her other duties the work of carding, spinning, and weaving the wool. She also looked carefully after the education of her children. The following letters were written to Levi and Asenath Greene by Ripley and Zerilla Green about a year after they came to Michigan.

Bloomfield, April 7th 1833

"Dear Parents:

"I received you letter Dated March 12, which informed me that you had not received my letter of January last. I suspect you have not been to the Right office. I directed it to Venice you had informed me that you had received a letter from Diantha which informed you of the death of Horace. O my Dear Parents how shall I describe my feelings when I Received the fatal news. about a month before he had been at my house and got his money that I brought from Livonia. he appeared to be well pleased with his situation, I shall not be particular in this for I think you will get the other. Father wrote that if your health was Continued he thought he should come and pay us a visit this summer. the road through Canada was very muddy when we came a part of the way we were fourteen days getting home. we were hindered one day I think you would stand the journey better to come by water. it would be so much shorter. I heard from Diantha about a fortnight ago. She and family were well. Our family have enjoyed very good health the winter past. I have no News to write except to tell Sophia that Betsy is Married to that old bachelor I told her about. She lives about two miles from our house. I sold my Mare for sixty dollars, the children send their love to all their Cousins.

"Give my love to all who enquire so I must bid you good bye Levi and Asenath Green. Z. R. Green"

"Dear Parents

"I again take my pen to write you a few lines and inform you that we are all well and contented with our home, the winter has been very favourable for those that have no house nor barn. We have made better than forty weight of sugar this spring it has not been a very good season for sugaring.

"Ripley has had very good luck hunting this winter. He has killed six deer and one fisher. the deer are very good meat they had some tallow in them. Our children think Michigan is a fine place because we can make sugar and Pa can kill deer, they often wish GrandPa and Grand Ma was here. Betsy did not stay with us long, she went to see Diantha after Horace's death and stayed about two weeks. Mr. Blakesley went after her and brought her back. They were married about the middle of February, we hope that she has got a good home.

He appears to be a likely man. I think probably they will live near us (for) some time, he owns a good farm and has considerable cleared on it. Emmett can go to see Aunt Betsey alone. I mean to have him go to school this summer. He reads very well. Almeda can read in three letters quite smart. Luthera is as full of mischief as the other children were, she talks everything. Betsey concluded to give up her land, therefore Ripley paid her money back and keeps both lots, he will not have so much money to help himself with now, but it may be as well for us in the end, if we are blest with health. I think it is as healthy here as it was in Livonia. some people complain of the ague, it has not troubled us any yet. We heard from Orange Powells family about two weeks ago. She has got another child therefore Michigan does not free women from that evil. We received a letter from my Sister Lucy a fortnight since which in-formed us that they were all well. If your healths will admit I hope you will not fail of visiting us this summer. Almeda wants Grand Pa to sing to her. I have no news to write so I close by subscribing myself your Daughter-in-law Levi and Asenath Green

Zerilla Green"

Eight children were born to Zepheniah Ripley and Zerilla (Gould) Green:

54. (1) Addis Emmet[7], born October 17, 1827.
55. (2) Nancy Almeda[7], born October 9, 1829.
56. (3) Adeliza Luthera[7], born April 7, 1831.
57. (4) Emma Maria[7] May 25, 1833.
58. (5) Horace Alfonzo[7] born May 17, 1835.
(6) Sophronia, born in West Bloomfield, Mich., May 17, 1837. Died October 5, 1840. Buried at North Farmington.
59. (7) Lucy Ordelia[7], born March 18, 1839.
60. (8) Betsey Louisa[7], born October 8, 1841.

10.—EMMA GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born at Middleburg, Schoharie Co., New York, April 24, 1804. On June 7, 1827, she was married in Livonia, New York to Abner Beardsley. She died in Minnesota, June 19, 1889. A letter written by Emma (Greene) Beardsley from Lincklaen, Chenango Co., New York, dated October 25, 1830, follows:

"Dear Parents:

"I again take my pen to write to you I have written one letter, but receiving no answer I concluded you had forgotten us or had not received it. We all enjoy good health at present. There was no house on our land fit to live in. Abner has purchased fifty acres more which has a comfortable framed house on it. We have just moved into it. Notwithstanding the backwardness of the forepart of the season crops have come in very well. I feel very well contented with my new home. If my friends lived near so I could visit them it would be very pleasing but all things are ordered by an all wise God who worketh all things well according to the counsel of his own will and His will be done. Little Henry talks anything and everything. Sarah Jane begins to creep a little. How do the little children do at Livonia? I feel very anxious to hear from you all. I am sure some of you could write. I have not heard a word from you since Horace's folks were there last winter. Direct your letters West Lincklaen, Chenango Co., New York. Abner sends his love to you all and says you must come and see us as soon as you can.

"I conclude by subscribing myself

"Your Daughter and Sister

Emma Beardsley"

"Levi Greene

Livonia Co., New York"

In October, 1838, Abner Beardsley sold his farm in Castile, New York and purchased a sash factory. In 1849, they lived on a farm at Patch Grove near Bee Town, Grant County, Wisconsin. In 1855 they lived near Faribault, Minnesota where he died.

The children of Emma Greene and Abner Beardsley, all born in New York, were:

61. (1) Henry Martin Beardsley[7], born in 1828 or 29.
62. (2) Sarah Jane Beardsley[7], born January 2, 1830.
63. (3) Elizabeth Beardsley[7], born in 1832.
64. (4) Mary Ann Beardsley[7], born in 1834.

65. (5) Edward P. Beardsley[7], born May 12, 1838.
66. (6) John Quincey Beardsley[7], born November 17, 1840.

11.—SPEEDY GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Middleburg, Schoharie Co., New York, May 25, 1808. When quite young, her parents moved to Scipio, Cayuga Co., New York, and about 1816 again moved to Livonia, Livingston Co., New York, where she married, lived her life, and died. On January 4, 1827, she married Gerothman McDonald who was born at Holland Patent April 9, 1799. Several letters written by Gerothman McDonald and Speedy, his wife, to her father, mother, and brother, Ripley Green, are still preserved. One of these, written March 13, 1833, to her parents in Genoa, New York and her sister, Sophia Curtis, speaks of her brother Horace's death, and of the visit to her home of her brother, Ripley, from Michigan. In a letter sent by Ripley to his wife, Zerilla, she says, "We have got in considerable wheat and I hope we shall be able to pay for our place. If we do, and get a comfortable house, I shall be contented with our situation." One written June 1, 1833 was on the back of a letter written by her uncle, Reuben Robinson, to Levi Greene, then living at Genoa, New York. The news items included were of interest chiefly to that day. September 5, 1833, she writes to her brother, Ripley, having a chance to send it to Michigan by her cousin, Newton Robinson. "Worldly things," she writes, "Look more prosperous with us than otherwise, at present. Our wheat came in very good. Gerothman thinks he will have between five- and six-hundred bushels. We have likewise another daughter, one month old yesterday and that you know is prosperity indeed.

"Gerothman is now at home getting out stuff and framing a store that he has taken to build. I have ten in my family and Wm. Ashley is but eighteen months old, so I have two babies to take care of.

"Ann M. and Curtis send their love to Emmet and Almeda."

Gerothman McDonald writes to Levi Curtis, his nephew, on February 27, 1835, telling him that he will work at the joiners work this season and will pay him eleven dollars per month if he wishes to work.

Speedy's letter of July 31, 1837, tells her parents of a son four months old. On August 24, 1856, she writes of their sorrow in the death of their son David Curtis McDonald. On March 25, 1860, she writes her brother, speaking of her sister Laura and her husband, Sheldon Wilcox. In her next letter, which is undated, she tells of the death of Laura, which, she says, occurred on the sixteenth instant.

These little jottings from their letters prove the truth of the sketch of the lives of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald written by their daughter, Alice McDonald Townsend, at the age of seventy seven.

"My father and mother were not rich in this world's goods, neither were they poor. Ever since I can remember, my father had a farm. He was also a carpenter and by his work brought in money which was a help in bringing up his large family. I have no doubt there was a little mortgage upon his farm, though I do not remember about that as it was paid off when I was quite young, if there was one. I remember their working hard with help when it became necessary and all of us children having to turn in and do our share.

"My mother taught school a term or more before she married and had good ideas of education. She was of the New England type of woman, true, exact, and just, and father was in sympathy with her. They managed so that each one of us should have a term of schooling, longer, or shorter, away from our home school and home influences. We can truly say, 'Their children rise up and call them blessed.' "

Gerothman McDonald died April 9, 1883, and Speedy, his wife, died March 21, 1890.

The children of Gerothman and Speedy (Greene) McDonald follow:

67. (1) Ann Marie McDonald[7], born October 5, 1827.
    (2) David Curtis McDonald[7], born August 27, 1829

—died June 6, 1856 — killed by cars.

(3) William Ashley McDonald[7], born February 28, 1832—died November 18, 1857—accident.

68. (4) Alice Sophia McDonald[7], born August 11, 1833.

69. (5) Gamaliel Barstow McDonald[7], born October 9, 1835.

70. (6) Beebe Galusha McDonald[7] born March 23, 1837.

71. (7) George Lewis McDonald[7], born September 30, 1838.

72. (8) Huldah Eliza McDonald[7], September 8, 1840.

73. (9) Zelia Annette McDonald[7], born December 10, 1841.

74. (10) Victor McDonald[7], born June 17, 1848.

12.—LAURA GREENE[6] (Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Cayuga Co., New York, either at Venice or at Scipio, August 11, 1811. She lived with her parents until some time between 1830 and 1832, when she married A. Sheldon Wilcox, a cousin to Orange Chapin. From this time on they lived in various places about South Livonia, New York, Mr. Wilcox working as a farmer and a builder. In their declining years, Mrs. Wilcox was cared for by her relatives in South Livonia, where she died February 16, 1861, and is buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery. On her headstone are the words, "Aunt Laura Lies Here." Mr. Wilcox was cared for by nephews in a distant town.

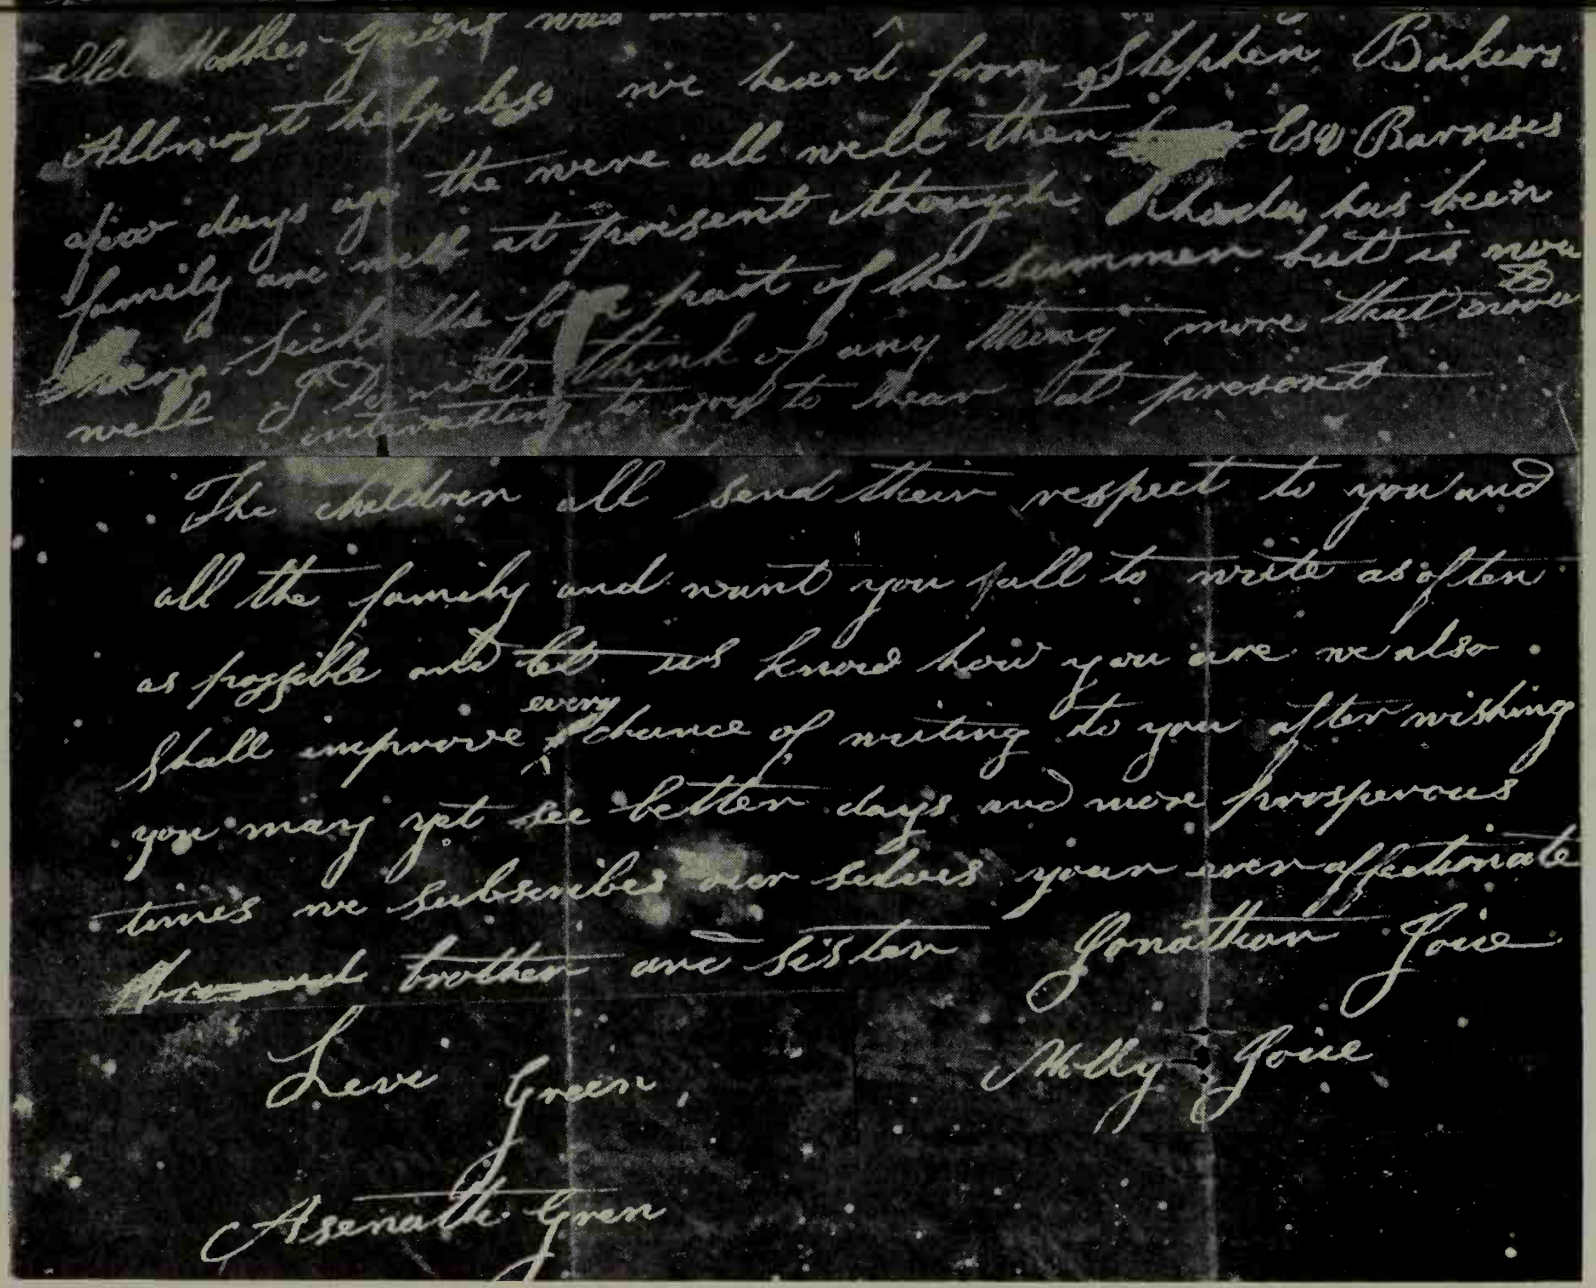
Middleburgh Sept 8 1813

Dear brother and Sister we take this opportunity to inform you of our healths which we enjoy at present and could wish you the same blessing we are informed you have been very sickly you and your family ever since you left that country which has given us great concern it would be a great comfort to us if we could visit you in your trouble but as we are obliged to be content if possible with hearing from you once in a great while we have had considerable sickness in our family but are all alive except Stephens wife and youngest child which you doubtless have heard of before old Mrs Strong is dead and Joseph Sisson's wife Mr Benjamin Briggs decison white this wife Thomas and Clover all are dead and many more which you would know perhaps. Eunice and her husband was here last winter and made a visit we conclude they are well or Mr Griffin people would have heard of it we heard from Mr Chapel five or six weeks ago again came to here from the same live in and said they were all well



Letter from Jonathan and Molly Joice to Levi and Asenath Green — 1813

114. (5) Addison Chapel[8], born June 8, 1859.

17.—MARIA THANKFUL CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Lenox, Massachusetts, November 10, 1813. In one letter, about 1821, her mother says she broke both arms before she was three years old. She was at her mother's home at the village near Jenning's Tavern in November, 1837. She was twice married. On November 30, 1834, she married Albert Parmalee who was born March 20, 1815, in Kentucky. They came to Michigan in 1854, settling at Medina, Lenawee Co. Mr. Parmalee died November 14, 1855. In 1865, she married Amariah Justin, who was born July 30, 1811. He died at Ransom, Hillsdale Co., Michigan on December 14, 1896.

Maria Thankful Justin died of bronchial grippe at Hillsdale, Michigan, September 27, 1903. She was a member of the Baptist Church nearly all of her life and a consistent Christian. She was buried in Jefferson township.

The children of Maria Thankful (Chapel) and Albert Parmalee, all born in Oswego Co., New York, were:

18.—LEVI R. CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2) Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born September 27, 1816. There seems to be a conflict about the name of his wife, as records sent me by Catherine (Jennings) Kelsey state that he married Mary Wells but he refers to his wife as Eliza in a letter written to his cousin, Addis Emmet Green, December 16, 1848. In 1837 he lived with his mother. A letter to his grandparents, Levi and Asenath Greene, written from Palermo, New York, July 15, 1845, bids them goodbye forever, for he is lookin for the world to end. He died October 16, 1901, leaving no children. A boy named Arthur Wilson lived with him at the time of his death.

19.—LUCRETIA ANN CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2) Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born at Lenox, Massachusetts, March 11, 1819 and married Abel Caulkins at Palermo, New York, November 1, 1840. She died September 18, 1901.

Their three children are:

121. (1) Eliza Ann Caulkins[8], born March 2, 1844.
122. (2) Luthera Caulkins[8], born October 30, 1849.
123. (3) Sarah Caulkins[8], born January 22, 1852.

20.—JANE EMMA CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2) Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Lenox, Massachusetts, September 2, 1821. Married Ashbel Scudder in Palermo, New York, January 9, 1842. She died at Palermo April 1889. Ashbel Scudder, son of Orvillus and Marium (——) Scudder, was born in Palermo January 4, 1820, and died in the same city, January 11, 1906. He was a barrel maker. They were Methodist Episcopal in faith.

Their children are:

124. (1) Walter Scudder[8], born November 9, 1842.
125. (2) Delight Scudder[8], born July 22, 1848.
126. (3) Addison Scudder[8], born September 12, 1854.

21.—RUTH H. CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2) Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in New York January 26, 1824. She married James Edmonds, born in Buckingham Shire, England. They came to Howell, Michigan, where Mrs. Edmonds died about 1863-4 and Mr. Edmonds in 1885. Both are buried at Howell. Mr. Edmonds was a carpenter.

Their children are:

127. (1) Jane Edmonds[8], born November 15, 1843.
128. (2) Charlotte Edmonds[8], born May 18, 1850.
129. (3) Marthy Edmonds[8], born May 18, 1845-6.
130. (4) Alida Edmonds[8], born 1855.

22.—ABIJAH G. CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born August 10, 1826. He taught school in Illinois in 1848. He married Algerose Gridley of Hastings, New York, on July 22, 1849, where he lived in 1866. He died November 8, 1890.

Their children are:

131. (1) Ida Louise Chapel[8], born——1854.
132. (2) Erwin Chapel[8], born March 1, 1857.
(3) Edna Chapel[8], born March 1, 1857; died young.

23.—ORANGE LEVI CHAPEL[7] (Aurelia[6] (2), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born October 22, 1828. He taught in Illinois in 1848. His wife was Mary Wood of Hastings, New York. He died in 1871.

Children:

Edgar Chapel, an heir of Levi Chapel whose estate was probated in 1907, was possibly the son of Orange and Mary Wood Chapel.

157. (2) Elmer Elsworth Crippen[8], born December 7, 1862.

32.—SOPHIA CRIPPEN[7] (Eunice[6] (3), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Decatur, New York, October 1, 1829. She died March 24, 1855. About two years before her death, she married Hiram Summers. There were no children.

33.—LEVI CURTIS[7] (Sophia[6] (5) Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in 1819 in New York. He married Lurana Elsworth. From letters written about 1838, he was in Michigan. He was for several years a resident of Highland, Oakland Co., Michigan. However, in 1844 he had returned to South Livonia, New York. In 1855 he had a grocery at head of Seneca Lake. He died April 22, 1868, in Fenton, Michigan at the home of his son-in-law, Edward Trump. From his obituary, we glean the following:

"Captain Curtis, as he was called, served his country with honor in the 5th New York Cavalry. He was one of the 'bravest of the brave.' He led the first Cavalry charge that was ever made through Thoroughfare Gap and was always selected by his Superior officers to lead any hazardous and dangerous expedition, as his well known courage and energy gave them entire confidence that when he commanded he would be successful." He was buried with Masonic Honors by Fentonville Lodge, No. 109

The one daughter of Levi and Lurana (Elsworth) Curtis was:

158.—(1) Charlotte Curtis[8], born in 1840.

34.—EDWIN CURTIS[7] (Sophia[6] (5), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born at Genoa, New York, October 24, 1821. Three letters written by Edwin Curtis in 1849, 1851, and 1855 from Genoa, New York, are in the hands of Ripley Green's descendants. In each of these letters, he is anxious to get his money out of land and mortgages on land in Michigan, that he might use it in payment on his place in New York. In the letter of 1855, Edwin Curtis says, "I live one-half mile west and one half mile south of Genoa Hollow on the Indian fields. I have 74 acres and all my buildings are new, built within three years. I have a horse barn, grain barn, cow shed and stables for 12 head of cattle, and a good house. It cost me $57 an acre." He died February 24, 1856, and is buried in Genoa Rural Cemetery. Edwin Curtis was twice married, his first wife being Calysta Gere, who died in 1852. He had two children by his first marriage.

159. (1) David Curtis[8], born ——. Died December, 1892.

160. (2) Califernia Curtis[8], born in November, 1850.

For his second wife, he married Susan Vandemark, November 3, 1852.

His son by his second marriage was:

She was married on October 13, 1847, to John L. Van Sickle of South Livonia, born August 30, 1821, son of James Van Sickle, born December 4, 1796, died July 29, 1871, and Hannah Landis, born March 4, 1801, died September 17, 1884. Mr. Van Sickle was a farmer at South Livonia. Mrs. Van Sickle died December 18, 1875. Mr. Van Sickle died December 22, 1891.

Their children are:

165. (1) Sophia E. Van Sickle[8], born July 29, 1848.
166. (2) Ellen C. Van Sickle[8], born November 14, 1850.
167. (3) James Hixon Van Sickle[8], born October 24, 1852.

37.—AMANDA CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born December 7, 1814 in Venice, Cayuga Co., New York. On January 19, 1832, she married Varnum Dyer Burch who was born in the same town, June 11, 1811. Amanda (Chapin) Burch died in Jefferson City, Missouri, April 23, 1906. Varnum Burch was President of the National Bank in Jefferson City, Missouri. He died in 1877.

Their children follow:

168. (1) Nelson Chapin Burch[8], born October 11, 1835.

169. (2) Orange Emmons Burch[8], born February 25, 1839.

October 13, 1836, in Venice, Cayuga Co., New York, he married Catherine Abbott Akers, daughter of Obadiah Akers and Phebe (Hart) Akers. Her grandparents were Jonathan and Catherine (Abbott) Akers and Timothy Hart. Catherine Abbott Akers was born in Auburn, New York, January 25, 1816 and died in the same city August 15, 1897. Nelson Chapin died in Auburn, New York, May 5, 1883.

Their child is:

171. (1) Sarah E. Chapin[8], born July 15, 1837.

39.—LEVINEA SOPHIA CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born June 17, 1818. She married Charles A. Baker, a descendant of Simeon Baker[1], emigrant from England, on July 10, 1839. In October, 1841, her cousin, Phebe Jane Slocum, writes to Levi Green and says, "Lavinia has two children, one girl and one boy." A short genealogical record of the family of Levi and Asenath (Robinson) Greene was given to Levinea (Chapin) Baker by her mother, Fanny (Greene) Chapin, as she remembered it. This has been very helpful to me. Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker died in Auburn, New York, Mrs. Baker's death occurring April 20, 1900.

The children of Levinea Sophia (Chapin) Baker and Charles A. Baker are:

172. (1) Vallonia Eugene Baker[8], born May 3, 1840.

173. (2) Helen Adella Baker[8], born August 23, 1841.

40.—MATILDA CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born March 20, 1820. She married John Garrow Taylor and in 1841 lived in one part of a tavern, probably kept by his father or brother as it was Taylor's Tavern. They had a little girl born in March or April, 1841, as learned by a letter from Phebe Jane Slocum written that year. She died in Northeast, Pennsylvania, March 7, 1875. Garrow was John Taylor's mother's maiden name. John and Matilda (Chapin) Taylor had three children.

174. (1) Frances Taylor[8], born March 4, 1841.
175. (2) Halsey Albertus Taylor[8], born July 9, 1843.
176. (3) Levinea A. Taylor[8], born about 1849.

41.—AURELIA C. CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Venice, New York, September 13, 1822. April 29, 1845, she maried in Aurelius, New York, James Henry Sackett, son of Russell Sackett and Jane Ann Stephenson and grandson of William Sackett, a Revolutionary soldier of Connecticut. They lived in New York until 1865 when they came to Albion, Michigan, where she died February 24, 1902. At the time of her death she was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her husband, who was born on December 4, 1818 in Aurelius, New York, died in Albion August 10, 1910. He was a farmer.

Their seven children follow:

177. (1) Jane Sackett[8], born May 4, 1846.
178. (2) Mary E. Sackett[8], born November 9, 1847.
179. (3) J. Russell Sackett[8], born March 20, 1850.
180. (4) Ida A. Sackett[8], born July 26, 1852.
181. (5) Fred Chapin Sackett[8], born August 11, 1854.
182. (6) Curtis A. Sackett[8], born July 14, 1857.
183. (7) Edward C. Sackett[8], born June 16, 1859.

42.—EMMA JANE CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born September 17, 1824 and died in Auburn, New York, January 8, 1902. On February 8, 1848, at Aurelius, New York, she married Henry Alexander Hall, son of Harry Hall (War of 1812) and grandson of General Isaac Hall (Revolutionary War), who was born June 10, 1827, and died November 18, 1895. He worked for the Railroad, also in the Auburn prison.

Their four children were as follows:

184. (1) Lelia Emmaline Hall[8], born April 6, 1850.
185. (2) Henry Willard Hall[8], born December 18, 1851.
186. (3) Orlando Clifford Hall[8], born February 20, 1855.
187. (4) Helen Aurelia Hall[8], born January 17, 1858.

43.—WILLARD SLOCUM CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born on December 26, 1826, at Aurelius, New York. He was engaged in farming most of his life up to 1862, when he enlisted in the 136th Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry. He served through the war, and came out commissioned as Captain. He was afterward breveted Major. After the war he was engaged in the mercantile business up to the time of his death, February 24, 1890. He held the position of postmaster from 1872 to 1888 at Livonia, New York. Mr. Chapin was a leader in political as well as social affairs. The wife of Willard Slocum Chapin was Catherine Hart, who was born in Tompkins Co., New York, February 13, 1833. Her father was Joseph Hart and her mother, Theodosia Stout, both of New Jersey. Catherine (Hart) Chapin died in Washington, D. C., November 29, 1890.

Their children are:

188. (1) Frederick Emmons Chapin[8], born December 7, 1860.
189. (2) Willard Hart Chapin[8], born September 1, 1862.
190. (3) Grace Evelyn Chapin[8], born September 20, 1868.

44.—ELIJAH EMMONS CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Aurelius, New York, July 14, 1829.

Elijah Emmons Chapin was reared on the old farm on the Genesee Turnpike, attending the public and private schools until the age of sixteen when he began teaching in Aurelius. Later he taught in Montezuma. While teaching he spent all his spare time in studying law. On December 28, 1852, he married at Aurelius, New York, an old schoolmate, Emily Jane Blanchard, who was born in Auburn, New York, January 16, 1832, and died in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, January 8, 1901. After traveling over the state writing for different eastern papers and practicing law, he settled in 1880 in Milwaukee where he remained until his death, May 17, 1905. Mr. Chapin took a prominent place in his profession, in politics and in Masonic circles. Professionally, he earned a state reputation as an upright, painstaking, and successful lawyer. In 1885 he was appointed assistant United States Attorney General in which capacity he defended the government against suits for damages growing out of the improvements on the Fox and Wisconsin Rivers. These claims aggregated $3,000,000, which litigation he wound up in favor of the government. He was a Democrat, a 32nd Degree Mason, and from 1880 to 1882 was grand master of the grand lodge of Wisconsin.

The children of Elijah Emmons and Emily Jane (Blanchard) Chapin were:

(1) Fanny Blanchard Chapin[8], born April 9, 1858, died July 5, 1859

191. (2) Herbert Blanchard Chapin[8], born May 3, 1860

122. (3) Clarence Emmons Chapin[8], born November 12, 1864

45.—ASENATH ROBINSON CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born October 9, 1831. She married Newton Benedict on June 26, 1850 at Aurelius, New York. She died in Cambeltown, New Brunswick, February 28, 1900. Both are buried in Auburn, New York. Mr. Benedict was a clerk in the State Department, Washington, D. C.

The children of Asenath Robinson (Chapin) and Newton Benedict are:

193. (1) James Sackett Benedict[8], born March 5, 1856.

(2) Ella Benedict[8], born —— Died young.

46.—MARY CAROLINE CHAPIN[7] (Fanny[6] (6), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born May 1, 1837. On October 12, 1859, she married Judson Ruel Case, who was killed in a railroad accident. On January 29, 1868, she married James M. Case. She died in Waukesha, Wisconsin, September 13, 1905.

47.—WATERMAN GREEN[7] (Horace[6] (7), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Livonia, New York, April 28, 1822. On March 24, 1838, he was married at Springfield, Michigan, by Reverend A. H. Tupper, to Sabrina Barnes, born in Rush, New York, September 3, 1824, daughter of Julius Barnes, born May 29, 1794, died February 12, 1846, and Silvia Brown, born January 4, 1788, died October 4, 1851. The Barnes family came to Michigan in 1835, settling near the present town of Atlas in Genesee Co. In a History of Genesee County, in speaking of the schools of Davison, it says, "The first school in Davison was taught by Miss Sabrina Barnes about 1839-40 in a shanty formerly occupied by Christopher Miller as a dwelling house." As she had married then, I would guess her teaching date was the previous year. Little is known of their married life or the cause for their separation, but before March 1, 1868, he had married for his second wife, Almeda Simmons and they were living in Detroit, Michigan. Later he went to the mining region of Northern Michigan. He died in Duluth, Minnesota, January 19, 1889. Sabrina Green died in Turin, Michigan, in 1895.

The children of Waterman and Sabrina (Barnes) Green are:

194. (1) Daphne Green, born May 26, 1848.
195. (2) Ellen Green[8], born about 1850.
196. (3) Julius Lester Green[8], born February 28, 1853.
197. (4) Solyman Ben Green[8], born February 28, 1853.

48.—GEROTHMAN GREEN[7] (Horace[6] (7), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3] Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnesset[1]) was born in Livonia, N. Y., August 10, 1824. On August 11, 1852, he married Marie Brokenshaw in Springfield, Michigan, and resided on the farm his father bought from the government. Here they lived for thirty-five years and here their children were born. They were influential members of the Baptist Church at Clarkston. In 1887 they moved to Kansas where Mr. Green died in Manhattan on December 11, 1901. Mrs. Green, who was born in Portsmouth, England, October 8, 1832, followed her husband in death November 28, 1902. Both are buried in Manhattan. Gerothman and Marie (Brokenshaw) Green had five children, as follows:

198. (1) Allice Julietta Green[8], born August 31, 1855.
199. (2) Willard Perry Green[8], born November 15, 1856.
(3) Horace E. Green[8], born August 4, 1859. Died November 24, 1860; buried in Springfield, Michigan.
200. (4) Elmer Brokenshaw Green[8] born October 15, 1862.
201. (5) Luther William Green[8], born January 31, 1869.

49.—ELMINA CLOE GREEN[7] (Horace[6] (7), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Livonia, New York, March 18, 1829. On May 4, 1847, she was married in Springfield, Michigan, to James Martin Paddock, son of Judson and Eliza (Tichenor) Paddock. James Paddock was born in New York on August 15, 1824. In an early day he came with his parents to Springfield, Michigan, from Port Byron, New York. He died at Percival, Iowa, on May 29, 1904, where he had gone in 1858. The children of James M. Paddock and wife Elmina Cloe Paddock were:

202. (1) Orrin Knelem Paddock[8], born March 24, 1848.
203. (2) Jessie E. Paddock[8], born August 10, 1851.
204. (3) Alvaretta Viola Paddock[8], born October 12, 1853.

Elmina Cloe (Green) Paddock, leaving her family, married on September 18, 1858, James Lytle Huggins, who was born October 29, 1814, and died October 13, 1892. She died in Zeandale, Kansas, December 30, 1897. Mr. Paddock was married a second time and had a family of five sons by this union.

50.—DIANTHA MALVINA GREEN[7] (Horace[6] (7), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born at Livonia, New York, January 11, 1831. She grew up in her mother's home in Springfield, Michigan, living the quiet, busy home life of girls of her time. In 1858 she accompanied her sister, Elmina Cloe (Green) Paddock and family to Iowa, from whence she wrote the following letter to her uncle, Ripley Green.

"Gaston, Fremont Co. Iowa
May 10th

"My dear Uncle:

"According to the promise I made you I take my pen in hand to address you with a few lines, to let you know that we are safely arrived at our western home. Although our journey was a long and tedious one of eleven days, we had no trouble whatever in arriving at our place of destination. We have been here a little over two weeks. Our goods came the day before yesterday, safe and sound, and now we shall begin to live, I hope, as we have staid as yet. I suppose you want to know how we like the Country, and I will try to tell you. So far as I have seen, I like it very much. It has been quite rainy since we have been here so that I have not been able to go about much. I went to Nebraska City the other day. The road lay across the Prairie. The grass is about a foot high and looks like an extensive meadow with vast herds of cattle here and there all over it, the government cattle are pastured on this Prairie for Utah. There are quite a number of the U. S. troops at Nebraska City at present. The city, if not quite as large as I expected covers over considerable ground but not very thick together. There are some very nice brick houses but few and far between. Our own village must have been one of the things that existed in my imagination, for I have failed to find it. However there is a public house here that looks quite lofty with its two stories and board roof and then there is a blacksmith shop and steam saw mill and schoolhouse. It might be something if it was managed rightly as there might be a steamboat landing here and there is no other place very near here on this side the river, I do not think there is much danger of my being homesick, but I should like to see the old friends at home very much indeed, but when I ever shall is more than I can tell. I feel as though I was a great way from them. If my dear Brother and family were only here, I think it would be all I would ask in this world. It was very hard for me to bid them good bye, and wheather I shall ever see them again or not God only knows.

J. and E. wish to be remembered and now good bye for this time my Dear Uncle. Remember me as your affectionate niece.

Malvina Green"

On September 1, 1859, Malvina Green was married at Gaston, Iowa to Delos Williams who was born at Danby, New York, September 11, 1834. Here at Gaston, Iowa they made their home. They united with the Congregational Church and were faithful members, he serving as deacon for many years, she as Sunday School worker. Her neighbors always found in her a kind and helpful friend. Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Upland, California, in 1901. Here Mrs. Williams died on February 20, 1907. Mr. Williams died March 17, 1917. The nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Williams are:

54.—ADDIS EMMET GREEN[7] (Ripley[6] (9), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnesset[1]) was born in Livonia, Livingston County, New York, on the farm owned and carried on by his grandfather, father, and Uncle Horace, October 17, 1827. Here he spent the first four and one half years of his life and here his early education was begun. In 1832 he came with his parents to West Bloomfield, Michigan, and among many other incidents of the journey, related in his old age, he told of playing in the sand of the street at what is now the foot of Woodward Ave., Detroit. His education was continued in the rural schools near his home until his nineteenth year, when he began teaching. In October, 1851, together with some of his friends, he went to California, working in mines at Shelby Flatt and Grass Valley and in restaurants, and at office work in Nevada and Sacramento. Late in 1853 or early in 1854, he returned to Michigan and then went to Ypsilanti for a review course at the State Normal School. For a few years he pursued his work as a teacher, working on a farm in vacation.

On October 1, 1856, he was united in mariage to Cordelia Adaline Smith, daughter of Calvin and Eleanor (Durfee) Smith of Novi, Michigan, her great grandfather, Benjamin Smith, being a Revolutionary soldier. Mrs. Green was born October 25, 1833, on a farm in the township of Novi, Oakland County, Michigan, which was taken up from the government by her grandfather, Daniel Durfee. Her early education was gained in the rural school. At the age of fifteen, she began teaching, which work she continued until her marriage, with the exception of a few terms spent at the State Normal School at Ypsilanti. Mr. and Mrs. Green have long been active members of the Universalist Church at Farmington, members of the local Grange, also of the State and National Grange, being for twelve years Assistant Steward and Lady Assistant of the State Grange. Both were leaders in social and educational circles in their community and ever ready to extend aid and comfort to friends and neighbors in times of need. They were ardent workers in all temperance causes. Both died on the farm which they owned and upon which they had resided all their married lives, the farm lying across the street from his father's farm. Both are buried in the North Farmington Burial Ground, Mr. Green dying February 20, 1911, and Mrs. Green dying May 8, 1917.

The children of Emmet and Adaline (Smith) Green are:

221. (1) Calvin Ripley Green[8], born September 8, 1857.
(2) Eleanor Zerilla Green[8], born September 20, 1861; died July 23, 1873.
222. (3) Maud Blakeslee Green[8], born May 1, 1863.
223. (4) Myra Woolley Green[8], born March 14, 1869.
224. (5) Mary Shaw Green[8], born March 14, 1869.

55.—NANCY ALMEDA GREEN[7] (Ripley[6] (9), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Livonia, Livingston Co., New York, October 9, 1829. In July, 1832, she came with her parents to West Bloomfield, Oakland Co., Michigan, where her early life was spent in attending the rural school and accomplishing herself in the domestic arts incident to those times. On March 1, 1846, she married Lewis Severance, son of Benjamin and Betsey (Dodge) Severance, who was born in Clairmont, New Hampshire, March 25, 1822. About a year after their marriage, they purchased a farm on what was known as the Wyandotte Reservation near the village of Flat Rock, Michigan, where they remained five years. They then sold this place for fourteen hundred dollars and spent one year in the village just named. In May, 1854, they moved to Fenton, Michigan, where they purchased a piece of new land on the banks of Long Lake, out of which they carved one of the excellent farms of the township. Here Mr. Severance died in January, 1870. Early in life, Mr. and Mrs. Severance united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and ever remained faithful and consistent members.

After Mr. Severance's death, Mrs. Severance carried on the work of the farm until her sons were old enough to take the responsibility. She showed herself a woman of marked business ability and her life was filled with truly Christian graces. She died at her home at Long Lake, near Fenton, Genesee Co., Michigan, on June 9, 1892.

The children of Nancy Almeda (Green) and Lewis Severance are:

225. (1) Ellen Sophronia Severance[8], born February 26, 1847.
226. (2) Emma Sophia Severance[8] born April 27, 1850.
227. (3) Charlotte Emily Severance[8], born June 8, 1853.
228. (4) Edgar Carlos Severance[8], born April 18, 1856.
229. (5) Bessie Eva Severance[8], born September 3, 1858.
(6) Freddy Lewis Severance[8], born January 23, 1863; died March 7, 1866.

56.—ADELIZA LUTHERA GREEN[7] (Ripley[6] (9), Levi[5], Timothy[4], Wealthy John[3], Lieutenant John[2], John of Quidnessett[1]) was born in Livonia, New York, April 7, 1831. She moved to West Bloomfield, Michigan, with her parents in 1832. As a child and young woman, she attended the district school in the old log school house. December 23, 1847, she married Leonard Myra Garfield, who was born July 7, 1822. Mr. Garfield was a farmer, and they bought a one hundred acre farm near Fenton, Michigan. They cleared a small place, building a log house to live in and clearing and improving the farm as they could. In the fall, Mr. Garfield added to his income by going threshing.

Mr. Garfield died September 14, 1860, and Mrs. Garfield married Ransom Brown on August 23, 1861. Mr. Brown, who was born July 19, 1837, died at Morris Landing, Virginia, August 9, 1862. He was at that time serving as a soldier in the Civil War. Mrs. Brown continued living on her farm, the work of which she carried on with the help of her children and son-in-law, until her death, April 3, 1892.

The children of Luthera (Green) and Leonard Garfield were:

(1) Horace Wallace Garfield[8], born April 11, 1850; died July 25, 1850.

231. (2) Franklin Addis Garfield[8], born April 12, 1852.

232. (3) Oscar Alfonso Garfield[8], born September 18, 1853.

He was superintendent of schools in North Denver, Colorado from 1890 to 1900 when he went to Baltimore, Maryland, as Superintendent of Public Instruction. In 1911, he left Baltimore for Springfield, Massachusetts, to become Superintendent of Schools in that city, remaining there until 1923, when, at the age of seventy, he retired. The Springfield Republican says of him, "His retirement at the age of 70, seemed to rob the schools of one of the most finely matured minds in the whole field of American elementary and secondary education." The Baltimore Sunday Sun spoke of the warm friendship many citizens felt for James H. Van Sickle and the deep and general regret at his death. "The schools of today and the better schools which may come in the future are his memorial in this city."

On the Junior High School in Springfield, Masachusetts, is a bronze tablet which reads,

Dear Children I once more take my pen in hand to inform you of our health which we enjoy as well as we can expect we left Venice the 11 of August
. Fanny then was so that she assisted some about our work but there was a number of weeks that she was as helpless as an infant it took three of us to help her off from the bed and on she was so for five months she did not use a needle at all her complaint was the inflamatory Rheumatism and other complaints we received a letter from you last Spring it being the first news we have had from you since a year ago last February we had almost despaird of ever hearing from you again but since that we have heard two or three times we have seen Mr Ashley since we came here he informs us that he hears that you have got a very good farm and are doing well it was a satisfaction to hear so directly from you since it is out of our power to visit you I have ever did in hopes that we should some time have it turn in our favour so that we should but i have given up all hopes I hope you will try to come and see us we both love you all to Michigan before we

Granges hands so we have not one cent that we can command you never can no how much I want to se you and yor children unless it so happen that some of your children should go so far from you and you in a situation that you cant see them we have ben here waiting one week for Dianthia but she dont come and I have given up all hopes of ever seeing any of you again we are groing old and infirm so that if we cant visit you soon we never can I have thought many times if we had enough of any thing that would command money that we could visit you once and then I think perhaps it is all for the best perhaps if we was to go there we should be loth to come back therefore whatever the situation be that we are placed in therewith to be content do write and let us no what you think about coming to se us for I must bid you adieu
My love to all your children and to Gerolman if he is there when you receive this I long to se them all PS I must inform you that Asenath Green Huldah has got a son about three months old She dos not enjoy verry good health tending the local school, then going to the Michigan State Normal School at Ypsilanti. On September 16, 1865, she married Hiram Edgar Moore, son of Andrew Brown and Lydia Ann (Mead) Moore who was born in West Bloomfield, Michigan, January 18, 1846. Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Moore purchased a farm just three miles east of the farm on which he was born. Here they established a fine home and where Mr. Moore built up his reputation as a breeder of fine Merino and Rambouillet sheep. About 1906, Mr. Moore retired from active business, giving over his interest to his son, E. M. Moore. He established a home directly across the road from the old farm, where he lived until his death on April 27, 1914. Mrs. Moore remained in this home until three years before her death which occurred at Pontiac, Michigan, April 15, 1922. Both are buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac. Both were members of the M. E. Church and both were ardent advocates of the Temperance cause.

While acting as Superintendent of the Sunday School of the South Congregational Church of Chicago, during the two years following his departure from Albion in March, 1912, he was a student in the Divinity Department of the University of Chicago. In September, 1914, he entered the Boston University School of Theology, from where he went out in April of the following year to a pastorate at Miami, Indiana. Here he remained for two years, when ill health, which brought on serious throat trouble, necessitated his leaving his work and returning home for a rest. On July 26, 1917, he enlisted at Detroit, Michigan, in the U. S. Marine Corps and was sent to Parris Island, South Carolina, for training. He was transferred to Quantico, Virginia, where he was assigned to the 34th Company and sent to France on Feb. 1, 1918, where he was instructor in machine guns and bayonet practice. There he was recommended for gunnery sergeant and advanced to training school. However, there came a call on the first of June for a quota to go to the front lines and he volunteered as one to go. He was transferred to 83rd Company, 6th Regiment, 4th Brigade of the 2nd Division, serving with the rank of Corporal through the battle of Belleau Woods and Chateau Thierry. He was also in the battle of Soisson where he was wounded July 19, 1918. After about two months in a war hospital, he was returned to the United States, leaving France November 11, 1918. He was discharged May 30, 1919. Upon his return to the U. S. he entered the teaching profession in Detroit, Michigan, spending some summers at Harvard and receiving his Master of Education degree from there in 1928.
